2. Stevensville Civic Club	Special Vehicle	In lieu of Citizen of the Year awards Stevensville Fire Dept fire engine displaying pennants of types of organizations that got us through covid - a big nod to the residents. A Celebration of Our Town The last couple of years the Stevensville Civic Club had to make some uncomfortable decisions. One was cancelling the Creamery Picnic in 2020 which also meant cancelling the Citizen of the Year recognition. Now that we can gather together we asked how do we pick a few community members out of all the amazing people and businesses and organizations that supported us through 2 very difficult years? It seemed an impossible task so it was decided to celebrate Stevensville. That means all the residents, all the businesses, all the organizations who continued to operate. Many of them morphed into new images of themselves to make life a little bit more palatable for those of us confined and easier for the many who needed to continue to go about the daily responsibilities as best they could. There were some heartbreaking situations and
